J-1 VISAS AND RE-ENTRY

TRAVEL ABROAD AND RE-ENTRY TO THE UNITED STATES

New visa stamp:

If the J-1 visa holder travels to a country other than the United States (including any country) before re-entry. A signed DS-2019 and evidence of financial support must be presented at the embassy or consulate. The signature on the DS-2019 must be accompanied by the International Student and Scholar Office (ISSO) before departure.

Traveling to another country

If the J-1 visa holder plans to enter a country other than the U.S. during that period, the embassy or consulate should be contacted to find out if an entry visa or health certificate is required.

Leaving the U.S.:
