must be completed by a licensed mental health provider
Under the Fair Housing Act (FHAr), order to qualify for an Emotional Support Anim (A) the animal "must be necessary to afford the individual an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling or to participate in the housing service or program. Further, there must be a relationship or nexus, between the individual's disability and the assistance the animal provides.
Having an ESA in the student's residential living space can be a reasonable accommodation for students with mental health disabilities, but due to the nature of our unsing arrangements it is necessary to carefully consider the impact of having an ESA on both the student and the residential community.
