

New Student Employee Orientation FAQs

Why are students required to complete this orientation?

New student employee orientation is an important element of the student employment recruitment and retention process. A new student employee orientation helps workers fe Career Center staff member will present and facilitate conversation around _____ in a group format. A orientation requirement.

Do students have to take this orientation every year, or with every job?

No, once a student has taken and passed the orientation they will have satisfied this requirement.

Do the students have to pass with a certain grade? How many attempts will they get?

Yes, student employees must pass the assessment with an 80% or better. Students can take the assessment as many times as it takes to achieve this score.