

JOHN GISSENDANNER LECTURE:

The Tempest in the Teapot

at the Center for the Study of Food and Culture

Black Folks and Cultural Politics of Food

Dr. Psyche Williams-Forsyth

Ph.D. in African American Studies
University of Maryland, College Park
Associate Professor of African American Studies and Director of the Center for the Study of Food and Culture at the University of Maryland, College Park
Author of Black Food: Soul Food as Politics
(Baltimore, MD: Johns Hopkins University Press, 2017)
and Black Food: Soul Food as Politics
(Baltimore, MD: Johns Hopkins University Press, 2017)

This event is free and open to the public.

Sponsored by the The John Giendanner Fund.

Tuesday
April 23, 2024

Lecture 6:00 PM
Lecture Hall
Room 0238
Towson University

Available via Zoom

JOHN GISSENDANNER LECTURE:

Lecture 6:00 PM
Lecture Hall