:

To promote the general mental health of Towson University students by allowing them the opportunity to grieve and be available for their families immediately sur times in glosing a loved one

•

Students should notify their instructors of the death and impending absence prior to leaving campus or shortly thereafter

:

All students who opt to use the Bereavement rocedure an have up to academidays off surrounding the loss of a loved on the next absences already prescribed in the course syllabus should not be used in congruence with the Bereavement Procedure. Significant relationships can include a re not limited to the following individuals:

- parents ordgalguardians
- sibling(s)
- significant other,pouse oregal ivil union partner
- uncle(s) oruant(s)
- grandparent(s)
- ousin(s)
- niece(s\( \rightarrow\) r nephew(s)
- legain-law(s)
- step-Relationindividual(s)
- child(ren)or individual(s) inwhichthe studenthaslegalguardian shipover

() :

Students should be allotted two days, in additthe three-mourning days, to travel to and from their respective ocations.

Travel days will be calendar days, not academic days. Students opting to use the Bereavement Procedur can appear to the professor and/or the department chair if more days are needed. These requests will be handled on a case basis.

.

Students should notify their instructors of the death and impending absence prior to leaving campus or shortly thereafter.heallowanceof daysgivenfor missedacademiwork should be equal to the number of days excused from classe student is responsible for working with the professor to make up these assignments missed should not be deducted in the extended period of allotted frameulty are not required to accommodate requests for additionablates.

Proof of Death:

.